1. Caesarea

Acts 25:6-12

Paul appeals to Caesar while in custody in Caesarea. He later leaves by ship under Roman guard.

2. Sidon

Acts 27:1-3

The first stop named in the voyage is Sidon. The centurion lets Paul visit friends there.

3. Myra

Acts 27:4-6

At Myra in Lycia, the centurion transfers the prisoners to an Alexandrian ship sailing for Italy.

4. Fair Havens

Acts 27:7-12

The ship shelters off Crete. Paul warns against continuing, but the crew hopes to find a better winter harbor.

5. Malta

Acts 28:1-10

After the shipwreck, the travelers learn they have landed on Malta. The islanders welcome them.

6. Puteoli

Acts 28:13-14

Paul and his companions come ashore and stay with local believers for seven days before continuing overland.

7. Rome

Acts 28:15-16

Believers from Rome come out to meet Paul and his companions at the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns. In Rome, Paul lives under guard.
