PROTOS BIBLE MAPS

Map of the Seven Churches of Revelation

Illustrated map | The seven messages

The tour follows the order of the seven messages. The Roman-era town illustrations are schematic and enlarged for visibility. The pins mark ancient cities in western Anatolia. Revelation does not trace the route of a messenger.

1. Ephesus

Revelation 2:1-7

The church is commended for endurance and called to return to its first love.

2. Smyrna

Revelation 2:8-11

A church facing poverty and suffering is urged to remain faithful.

3. Pergamum

Revelation 2:12-17

The church holds fast under pressure. The message calls some among them to repent of false teaching.

4. Thyatira

Revelation 2:18-29

The message commends love, faith and service and calls the church to reject teaching that leads it astray.

5. Sardis

Revelation 3:1-6

A church with a reputation for being alive is told to wake up and strengthen what remains.

6. Philadelphia

Revelation 3:7-13

The church has little strength but has kept Christ's word. The message describes an open door.

7. Laodicea

Revelation 3:14-22

The church is called lukewarm and urged to repent. Christ stands at the door and knocks.
