Sodom and Gomorrah map

Illustrated map | Abraham and Lot

The split shows the general directions in Genesis 13. Tall el-Hammam, northeast of the Dead Sea, has been proposed as Sodom. A second theory identifies Bab edh-Dhra as Sodom and nearby Numeira as Gomorrah, southeast of the sea. The exact locations remain disputed.

1. Abraham and Lot separate

Genesis 13:5-18

Their herds need more grazing land. Lot heads east toward the Jordan plain. Abram stays in Canaan and later settles near the oaks of Mamre at Hebron.

2. Lot flees toward Zoar

Genesis 19:15-23

Lot leaves with his wife and daughters. He asks to flee to the small town of Zoar.

3. Sodom and Gomorrah are destroyed

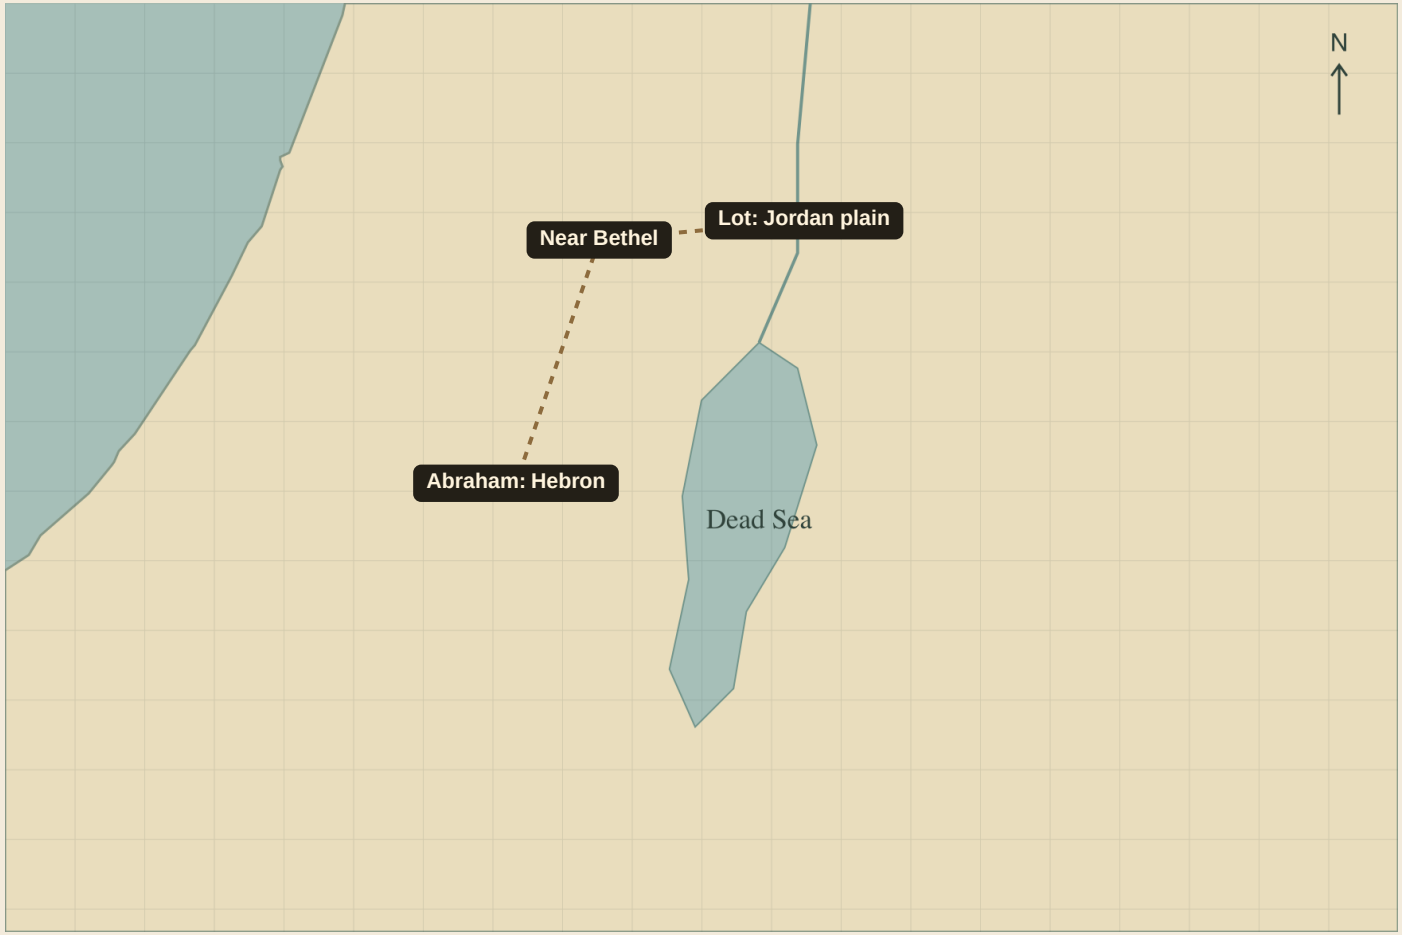

Genesis 19:24-29

The cities are destroyed. Abraham looks toward the plain and sees smoke rising from the land.
