

Ezra Bible study guide

A clear 5-session guide for personal study, small groups, and churches

Read Ezra as a whole before working through the sessions. Let its own structure set the agenda.

Every question sends you back to the biblical text. The guide helps you observe the passage, follow the author's argument, interpret it in context, and respond faithfully.

CHOOSE YOUR DEPTH

- Short: Read the book overview and discuss the first and final question in a session.
- Study: Work through all 5 sessions and answer each question from the passage.
- Deep: Open the free chapter commentary and dictionary links while you study.

Ezra at a glance

BIG IDEA

Ezra recounts God's marvelous work in bringing many Israelites back to Jerusalem after seventy years of exile in Babylon. [1]

HISTORICAL SETTING

Author: Ezra, according to tradition. Date: Records events that occurred around 538-457 BC. Setting: Jerusalem, beginning with the initial return of Jews from exile and ending with Ezra's arrival there. [1]

HOW TO READ THIS BOOK

Read this book as a shaped narrative. Follow plot, repeated scenes, turning points, and the narrator's choices before turning events into personal lessons.

MAJOR THEMES

- To demonstrate God's continued provision for his people and to show how to live when faced with foreign control, opposition, and pagan influence
- The book's literary movement and central claims
- Faithful response within the people of God
- Hope, judgment, grace, and obedience in their proper context

INTERPRETIVE CARE

- Let the narrator establish the point before treating an event as a general rule.
- Do not assume every action recorded in the story is commended.

Ezra 1-2

81 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jerusalem · Cyrus · Persia · Babylon · Elam · Solomon

Questions

- Before anyone explains it, walk through what actually happens here. Who does what, in what order?
- What does the writer repeat? Repetition is usually the point, not a habit.
- What surprised you, or what did you have to read twice?
- Solomon turns up in this section. What does the passage actually show, as opposed to what you already assumed?
- The word gold is doing real work here. What did you assume it meant, and does the passage agree?
- What did the writer choose to include here, and why that detail?
- Where does this cut against something you already believe or already do?

NOTES AND PRAYER

SESSION 2 OF 5

Ezra 3-5

54 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jerusalem · Euphrates · Darius · Persia · Zerubbabel · Shimshai

Questions

- Tell the story back in your own words. What is easy to skip over?
- Who is being addressed here, and what do they already know that we do not?
- What is assumed rather than argued? Those assumptions are often the real claim.
- Read this section from where Shimshai was standing. What changes?
- Define month from this passage alone, without reaching for what you already know.
- This is a story, not a lesson with a moral attached. What is it showing rather than telling?
- What would actually be different this week if you took this seriously?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Ezra 6-7

50 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jerusalem · Ezra · Artaxerxes · Babylon · Euphrates · Eleazar

Questions

- What happens in this section that you would struggle to explain to someone who has never read it?
- Which single verse carries the weight of this section?
- What is left unsaid that you expected to be said?
- What does the writer tell us about Eleazar, and what is deliberately left out?
- Where else have you heard month used, and is it being used that way here?
- Whose perspective are we given, and whose are we denied?
- Who do you know who needs to hear this, and what stops you saying it?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Ezra 8-9

51 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jerusalem · Levites · Hashabiah · Amorites · Artaxerxes · Babylon

Questions

- Read it once more, slowly. What do you notice the second time that you missed the first?
- Where does the tone shift, and what causes it?
- What question does this section answer that you had not thought to ask?
- What would this section sound like if Hashabiah were telling it?
- The word gold is doing real work here. What did you assume it meant, and does the passage agree?
- What would you have written differently if you wanted to make a point?
- What is the hardest thing in this passage to accept, and why that one?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Ezra 10

44 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Ezra · Elders · Harim · Jerusalem · Elam · Immer

Questions

- If this were the only part of the book you had, what would you conclude about Jesus?
- What does the writer repeat? Repetition is usually the point, not a habit.
- What surprised you, or what did you have to read twice?
- Ezra turns up in this section. What does the passage actually show, as opposed to what you already assumed?
- Define women from this passage alone, without reaching for what you already know.
- What did the writer choose to include here, and why that detail?
- If this is true, what have you been getting wrong?
