

Galatians Bible study guide

A clear 5-session guide for personal study, small groups, and churches

Read Galatians as a whole before working through the sessions. Let its own structure set the agenda.

Every question sends you back to the biblical text. The guide helps you observe the passage, follow the author's argument, interpret it in context, and respond faithfully.

CHOOSE YOUR DEPTH

- Short: Read the book overview and discuss the first and final question in a session.
- Study: Work through all 5 sessions and answer each question from the passage.
- Deep: Open the free chapter commentary and dictionary links while you study.

Galatians at a glance

BIG IDEA

Is a person saved by faith alone, or by a combination of faith plus works? [1]

HISTORICAL SETTING

Author: Paul. Date: Likely AD 48 or 49, just prior to the Jerusalem council. Setting: Written after a group of Jewish Christians had infiltrated the Galatian church communities, teaching on the necessity of practicing circumcision. [1]

HOW TO READ THIS BOOK

Read this letter as sustained pastoral reasoning. Track the argument, audience situation, repeated words, and the move from God's work to the response asked of believers.

MAJOR THEMES

- To persuade the Gentile Christians in Galatia-against opposition from certain Jewish Christians-that it is unnecessary to be circumcised and to adopt other practices from Jewish law in order to be part of God's people
- The book's literary movement and central claims
- Faithful response within the people of God
- Hope, judgment, grace, and obedience in their proper context

INTERPRETIVE CARE

- Follow the letter's argument instead of isolating a familiar verse.
- Distinguish what the writer says God has done from the response asked of believers.

Galatians 1

24 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jesus · Jerusalem · Arabia · Cilicia · Damascus · James

Questions

- Try to state the argument in one sentence before anyone reacts to it.
- What does the writer repeat? Repetition is usually the point, not a habit.
- What surprised you, or what did you have to read twice?
- Why does the writer bring James into this argument, and what claim does the example support?
- The word grace is doing real work here. What did you assume it meant, and does the passage agree?
- What problem was this letter written to solve, and does knowing that change how the instruction lands?
- Where does this cut against something you already believe or already do?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Galatians 2

21 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Gentiles · Barnabas · James · Jesus · Peter · Titus

Questions

- What is the writer trying to get these readers to do or stop doing?
- Who is being addressed here, and what do they already know that we do not?
- What is assumed rather than argued? Those assumptions are often the real claim.
- What does the writer assume the readers know about Barnabas, and how is that knowledge being used?
- Define gospel from this passage alone, without reaching for what you already know.
- Is this a command, a description, or an argument? They are not read the same way.
- What would actually be different this week if you took this seriously?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Galatians 3

29 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Abraham · Jesus · Gentiles · Faith · Promise · Mediator

Questions

- What has the writer already established that this section is building on?
- Which single verse carries the weight of this section?
- What is left unsaid that you expected to be said?
- Which detail about Abraham matters to the argument here, and which familiar details do not?
- Where else have you heard faith used, and is it being used that way here?
- What did the first readers face that we do not, and what does that change?
- Who do you know who needs to hear this, and what stops you saying it?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Galatians 4

31 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Hagar · Sinai · Abraham · Arabia · Isaac · Jerusalem

Questions

- Where does the writer expect pushback, and how do you know?
- Where does the tone shift, and what causes it?
- What question does this section answer that you had not thought to ask?
- Trace the sentence or paragraph that mentions Hagar. What conclusion does the writer want the readers to reach?
- The word flesh is doing real work here. What did you assume it meant, and does the passage agree?
- Where does the writer move from what God has done to what we should do?
- What is the hardest thing in this passage to accept, and why that one?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Galatians 5-6

44 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jesus · Paul · Flesh · Circumcision · Cross · Faith

Questions

- If you disagreed with this, where would you push first?
- What does the writer repeat? Repetition is usually the point, not a habit.
- What surprised you, or what did you have to read twice?
- Define flesh from this passage alone, without reaching for what you already know.
- What problem was this letter written to solve, and does knowing that change how the instruction lands?
- If this is true, what have you been getting wrong?
