Jeremiah at a glance

BIG IDEA

When God called Jeremiah to warn the kingdom of Judah of its impending destruction, the kingdom was relatively prosperous, free, and secure. [1]

HISTORICAL SETTING

Author: Content stems from Jeremiah; possibly written down by Baruch. Date: Around 627-580 BC. Setting: The final years of the kingdom of Judah, the invasion and destruction of Jerusalem by the Babylonians, and the initial years of Judah's exile. [1]

HOW TO READ THIS BOOK

Read this book in its historical setting and as prophetic proclamation. Track audience, covenant background, indictment, hope, and how later Scripture receives its promises.

MAJOR THEMES

- To warn Judah of coming destruction, outline the reasons for God's judgment, and encourage renewed devotion to the Lord
- The book's literary movement and central claims
- Faithful response within the people of God
- Hope, judgment, grace, and obedience in their proper context

INTERPRETIVE CARE

- Locate judgment and hope in the prophet's historical setting before making modern parallels.
- Treat prophetic imagery as Scripture's language, not a shortcut around careful context.

Jeremiah 1-6

173 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jerusalem · LORD · Egypt · Josiah · Assyria · Amon

Questions

- Try to state the argument in one sentence before anyone reacts to it.
- What does the writer repeat? Repetition is usually the point, not a habit.
- What surprised you, or what did you have to read twice?
- Why does the writer bring Amon into this argument, and what claim does the example support?
- The word cities is doing real work here. What did you assume it meant, and does the passage agree?
- What problem was this letter written to solve, and does knowing that change how the instruction lands?
- Where does this cut against something you already believe or already do?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Jeremiah 7-13

174 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jerusalem · LORD · Egypt · Baal · Anathoth · Dan

Questions

- What is the writer trying to get these readers to do or stop doing?
- Who is being addressed here, and what do they already know that we do not?
- What is assumed rather than argued? Those assumptions are often the real claim.
- What does the writer assume the readers know about Dan, and how is that knowledge being used?
- Define idol from this passage alone, without reaching for what you already know.
- Is this a command, a description, or an argument? They are not read the same way.
- What would actually be different this week if you took this seriously?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Jeremiah 14-21

161 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jerusalem · Jeremiah · Babylon · LORD · Topheth · Asherah

Questions

- What has the writer already established that this section is building on?
- Which single verse carries the weight of this section?
- What is left unsaid that you expected to be said?
- Which detail about Asherah matters to the argument here, and which familiar details do not?
- Where else have you heard sword used, and is it being used that way here?
- What did the first readers face that we do not, and what does that change?
- Who do you know who needs to hear this, and what stops you saying it?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Jeremiah 22-27

164 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Babylon · LORD · Jeremiah · Jehoiakim · Jerusalem · Hezekiah

Questions

- Where does the writer expect pushback, and how do you know?
- Where does the tone shift, and what causes it?
- What question does this section answer that you had not thought to ask?
- Trace the sentence or paragraph that mentions Hezekiah. What conclusion does the writer want the readers to reach?
- The word palace is doing real work here. What did you assume it meant, and does the passage agree?
- Where does the writer move from what God has done to what we should do?
- What is the hardest thing in this passage to accept, and why that one?
