

John Bible study guide

A clear 6-session guide for personal study, small groups, and churches

Read John as a whole before working through the sessions. Let its own structure set the agenda.

Every question sends you back to the biblical text. The guide helps you observe the passage, follow the author's argument, interpret it in context, and respond faithfully.

CHOOSE YOUR DEPTH

- Short: Read the book overview and discuss the first and final question in a session.
- Study: Work through all 6 sessions and answer each question from the passage.
- Deep: Open the free chapter commentary and dictionary links while you study.

John at a glance

BIG IDEA

John wrote his Gospel to inspire faith. [1]

HISTORICAL SETTING

Author: Likely the “beloved disciple,” traditionally identified as John, son of Zebedee. Date: Around AD 90.

Setting: Written toward the end of John’s life during a time when the early followers of Jesus were facing strife from local synagogues. [1]

HOW TO READ THIS BOOK

Read this Gospel as a coherent witness to Jesus. Notice scene order, repeated questions, fulfillment, conflict, and the movement toward the cross and resurrection.

MAJOR THEMES

- To generate belief in Jesus as Messiah and Son of God and to connect this belief with eternal life
- The book's literary movement and central claims
- Faithful response within the people of God
- Hope, judgment, grace, and obedience in their proper context

INTERPRETIVE CARE

- Read each episode in the Gospel's unfolding portrait of Jesus.
- Do not turn miracles or encounters into techniques readers are promised they can reproduce.

John 1-4

166 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jesus · John · Galilee · Jerusalem · Nathanael · Elijah

Questions

- Before anyone explains it, walk through what actually happens here. Who does what, in what order?
- What does the writer repeat? Repetition is usually the point, not a habit.
- What surprised you, or what did you have to read twice?
- Elijah turns up in this section. What does the passage actually show, as opposed to what you already assumed?
- The word woman is doing real work here. What did you assume it meant, and does the passage agree?
- What did the writer choose to include here, and why that detail?
- Where does this cut against something you already believe or already do?

NOTES AND PRAYER

John 5-6

117 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jesus · Sabbath · Capernaum · Moses · Jerusalem · John

Questions

- Tell the story back in your own words. What is easy to skip over?
- Who is being addressed here, and what do they already know that we do not?
- What is assumed rather than argued? Those assumptions are often the real claim.
- Read this section from where Moses was standing. What changes?
- Define eternal from this passage alone, without reaching for what you already know.
- This is a story, not a lesson with a moral attached. What is it showing rather than telling?
- What would actually be different this week if you took this seriously?

NOTES AND PRAYER

John 7-9

153 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jesus · Pharisees · Abraham · Moses · Galilee · Sabbath

Questions

- What happens in this section that you would struggle to explain to someone who has never read it?
- Which single verse carries the weight of this section?
- What is left unsaid that you expected to be said?
- What does the writer tell us about Abraham, and what is deliberately left out?
- Where else have you heard blind used, and is it being used that way here?
- Whose perspective are we given, and whose are we denied?
- Who do you know who needs to hear this, and what stops you saying it?

NOTES AND PRAYER

John 10-12

149 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jesus · Lazarus · Mary · Martha · Pharisees · Jerusalem

Questions

- Read it once more, slowly. What do you notice the second time that you missed the first?
- Where does the tone shift, and what causes it?
- What question does this section answer that you had not thought to ask?
- What would this section sound like if Lazarus were telling it?
- The word jews is doing real work here. What did you assume it meant, and does the passage agree?
- What would you have written differently if you wanted to make a point?
- What is the hardest thing in this passage to accept, and why that one?

NOTES AND PRAYER

John 13-17

155 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jesus · Peter · Judas · Philip · Passover · Thomas

Questions

- If this were the only part of the book you had, what would you conclude about Jesus?
- What does the writer repeat? Repetition is usually the point, not a habit.
- What surprised you, or what did you have to read twice?
- Thomas turns up in this section. What does the passage actually show, as opposed to what you already assumed?
- Define world from this passage alone, without reaching for what you already know.
- What did the writer choose to include here, and why that detail?
- If this is true, what have you been getting wrong?

NOTES AND PRAYER

John 18-21

138 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jesus · Peter · Pilate · Thomas · Caiaphas · John

Questions

- Where does the pace change here, and what is the writer slowing down for?
- Who is being addressed here, and what do they already know that we do not?
- What is assumed rather than argued? Those assumptions are often the real claim.
- Read this section from where Pilate was standing. What changes?
- Where else have you heard disciple used, and is it being used that way here?
- This is a story, not a lesson with a moral attached. What is it showing rather than telling?
- What would you want to be reminded of from this section in six months?
