

Joshua Bible study guide

A clear 6-session guide for personal study, small groups, and churches

Read Joshua as a whole before working through the sessions. Let its own structure set the agenda.

Every question sends you back to the biblical text. The guide helps you observe the passage, follow the author's argument, interpret it in context, and respond faithfully.

CHOOSE YOUR DEPTH

- Short: Read the book overview and discuss the first and final question in a session.
- Study: Work through all 6 sessions and answer each question from the passage.
- Deep: Open the free chapter commentary and dictionary links while you study.

Joshua at a glance

BIG IDEA

The account of Israel's soldiers walking around Jericho until its walls came tumbling down is one of the most famous in the Bible. [1]

HISTORICAL SETTING

Author: Unknown. Date: Records events that likely occurred in either 1406-1376 BC or 1230-1200 BC.

Setting: Begins with the Israelites about to cross the Jordan and ends with their new land having been distributed. [1]

HOW TO READ THIS BOOK

Read this book as a shaped narrative. Follow plot, repeated scenes, turning points, and the narrator's choices before turning events into personal lessons.

MAJOR THEMES

- To recount Israel's conquest of the Promised Land
- The book's literary movement and central claims
- Faithful response within the people of God
- Hope, judgment, grace, and obedience in their proper context

INTERPRETIVE CARE

- Let the narrator establish the point before treating an event as a general rule.
- Do not assume every action recorded in the story is commended.

Joshua 1-5

98 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Joshua · Jordan · Moses · Jericho · Egypt · Og

Questions

- Before anyone explains it, walk through what actually happens here. Who does what, in what order?
- What does the writer repeat? Repetition is usually the point, not a habit.
- What surprised you, or what did you have to read twice?
- Og turns up in this section. What does the passage actually show, as opposed to what you already assumed?
- The word ark is doing real work here. What did you assume it meant, and does the passage agree?
- What did the writer choose to include here, and why that detail?
- Where does this cut against something you already believe or already do?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Joshua 6-9

115 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Joshua · Ai · Jericho · Achan · Moses · Bethel

Questions

- Tell the story back in your own words. What is easy to skip over?
- Who is being addressed here, and what do they already know that we do not?
- What is assumed rather than argued? Those assumptions are often the real claim.
- Read this section from where Achan was standing. What changes?
- Define ark from this passage alone, without reaching for what you already know.
- This is a story, not a lesson with a moral attached. What is it showing rather than telling?
- What would actually be different this week if you took this seriously?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Joshua 10-13

123 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Joshua · Moses · Amorites · Hebron · Makkedah · Beor

Questions

- What happens in this section that you would struggle to explain to someone who has never read it?
- Which single verse carries the weight of this section?
- What is left unsaid that you expected to be said?
- What does the writer tell us about Beor, and what is deliberately left out?
- Where else have you heard sword used, and is it being used that way here?
- Whose perspective are we given, and whose are we denied?
- Who do you know who needs to hear this, and what stops you saying it?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Joshua 14-17

106 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Caleb · Joshua · Moses · Joseph · Canaanites · Hephher

Questions

- Read it once more, slowly. What do you notice the second time that you missed the first?
- Where does the tone shift, and what causes it?
- What question does this section answer that you had not thought to ask?
- What would this section sound like if Hephher were telling it?
- The word sea is doing real work here. What did you assume it meant, and does the passage agree?
- What would you have written differently if you wanted to make a point?
- What is the hardest thing in this passage to accept, and why that one?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Joshua 18-20

88 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Jordan · Joshua · Shiloh · Dan · Jericho · Bethel

Questions

- If this were the only part of the book you had, what would you conclude about Jesus?
- What does the writer repeat? Repetition is usually the point, not a habit.
- What surprised you, or what did you have to read twice?
- Shiloh turns up in this section. What does the passage actually show, as opposed to what you already assumed?
- Define inheritance from this passage alone, without reaching for what you already know.
- What did the writer choose to include here, and why that detail?
- If this is true, what have you been getting wrong?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Joshua 21-24

128 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Joshua · Moses · Jordan · Aaron · Canaan · Levites

Questions

- Where does the pace change here, and what is the writer slowing down for?
- Who is being addressed here, and what do they already know that we do not?
- What is assumed rather than argued? Those assumptions are often the real claim.
- Read this section from where Aaron was standing. What changes?
- Where else have you heard cities used, and is it being used that way here?
- This is a story, not a lesson with a moral attached. What is it showing rather than telling?
- What would you want to be reminded of from this section in six months?
