

Leviticus Bible study guide

A clear 6-session guide for personal study, small groups, and churches

Read Leviticus as a whole before working through the sessions. Let its own structure set the agenda.

Every question sends you back to the biblical text. The guide helps you observe the passage, follow the author's argument, interpret it in context, and respond faithfully.

CHOOSE YOUR DEPTH

- Short: Read the book overview and discuss the first and final question in a session.
- Study: Work through all 6 sessions and answer each question from the passage.
- Deep: Open the free chapter commentary and dictionary links while you study.

Leviticus at a glance

BIG IDEA

Leviticus enabled ancient Israel to live in relationship with a holy God. [1]

HISTORICAL SETTING

Author: Moses, according to tradition. Date: Records events that likely occurred around either 1446 BC or 1270 BC. Setting: The Israelites had been established as God's covenant people and were camped at the foot of Mount Sinai. [1]

HOW TO READ THIS BOOK

Read this book as covenant instruction within Israel's story. Ask what the passage requires, why it requires it, and how its place in the wider canon shapes faithful reading today.

MAJOR THEMES

- To demonstrate God's holiness and point his people to lead holy lives
- The book's literary movement and central claims
- Faithful response within the people of God
- Hope, judgment, grace, and obedience in their proper context

INTERPRETIVE CARE

- Read commands in their covenant and narrative setting before applying them directly.
- Distinguish what the text describes, commands, and anticipates in the wider biblical story.

Leviticus 1-6

134 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Aaron · Moses · Elders · Altar · Sin · Blood

Questions

- Try to state the argument in one sentence before anyone reacts to it.
- What does the writer repeat? Repetition is usually the point, not a habit.
- What surprised you, or what did you have to read twice?
- Why does the writer bring Aaron into this argument, and what claim does the example support?
- The word altar is doing real work here. What did you assume it meant, and does the passage agree?
- What problem was this letter written to solve, and does knowing that change how the instruction lands?
- Where does this cut against something you already believe or already do?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Leviticus 7-11

165 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Moses · Aaron · Eleazar · Abihu · Egypt · Elders

Questions

- What is the writer trying to get these readers to do or stop doing?
- Who is being addressed here, and what do they already know that we do not?
- What is assumed rather than argued? Those assumptions are often the real claim.
- What does the writer assume the readers know about Eleazar, and how is that knowledge being used?
- Define fat from this passage alone, without reaching for what you already know.
- Is this a command, a description, or an argument? They are not read the same way.
- What would actually be different this week if you took this seriously?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Leviticus 12-14

124 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Moses · Aaron · Canaan · Seven · Oil · Atonement

Questions

- What has the writer already established that this section is building on?
- Which single verse carries the weight of this section?
- What is left unsaid that you expected to be said?
- Which detail about Aaron matters to the argument here, and which familiar details do not?
- Where else have you heard seven used, and is it being used that way here?
- What did the first readers face that we do not, and what does that change?
- Who do you know who needs to hear this, and what stops you saying it?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Leviticus 15-19

150 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Aaron · Moses · Egypt · Canaan · Molech · Sabbath

Questions

- Where does the writer expect pushback, and how do you know?
- Where does the tone shift, and what causes it?
- What question does this section answer that you had not thought to ask?
- Trace the sentence or paragraph that mentions Aaron. What conclusion does the writer want the readers to reach?
- The word atonement is doing real work here. What did you assume it meant, and does the passage agree?
- Where does the writer move from what God has done to what we should do?
- What is the hardest thing in this passage to accept, and why that one?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Leviticus 20-24

151 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Moses · Aaron · Sabbath · Molech · Egypt · Passover

Questions

- If you disagreed with this, where would you push first?
- What does the writer repeat? Repetition is usually the point, not a habit.
- What surprised you, or what did you have to read twice?
- Why does the writer bring Aaron into this argument, and what claim does the example support?
- Define seven from this passage alone, without reaching for what you already know.
- What problem was this letter written to solve, and does knowing that change how the instruction lands?
- If this is true, what have you been getting wrong?

NOTES AND PRAYER

Leviticus 25-27

135 verses. Read it aloud together before anyone talks about it.

Who and what appears

Egypt · Moses · Sabbath · Sinai · Levites · Abraham

Questions

- What would be missing from the letter if this section were cut?
- Who is being addressed here, and what do they already know that we do not?
- What is assumed rather than argued? Those assumptions are often the real claim.
- What does the writer assume the readers know about Abraham, and how is that knowledge being used?
- Where else have you heard jubilee used, and is it being used that way here?
- Is this a command, a description, or an argument? They are not read the same way.
- What would you want to be reminded of from this section in six months?
